CBA's New Supervisory Costs

The Aruban Government has issued a National Decree (Landsbesluit AB 2022 no. 169) requiring designated non-financial service providers to contribute with an annual supervisory cost to the Central Bank of Aruba.

The maximum amount of the annual fee is set on Afl. 7.500,- per entity and must be invoiced by the Central Bank before 1 December of each year.

The annual fees will be as follows:

1. Casinos: Afl. 7.500,- per casino
2. Real Estate Brokers: Afl. 750,- per legal entity
3. Car Dealers: Afl. 750,- per legal entity
4. Art and Antiques Dealers and Traders in precious metal, stone, and jewelry: Afl. 750,- per legal entity
5. Notaries, Candidate Notaries, tax advisors, lawyers, or other similar legal professions: Afl. 750,- per individual professional
6. Registered accountants or other similar profession: Afl. 750,- per individual professional

As of 1 January 2023, a new AML/CFT Supervisory cost for designated non-financial service providers has been introduced by the Aruban Government.
